

Eclipse is a Integrated Development Environment.

IDE is a short form for Integrated Development Environment.

IDE is a software which is used to write code for softwares.

Through IDE we can write code, debug code and run code.

Eclipse Supports various popular languages like Java, PHP, Python, MySql etc.

Eclipse also has support for a popular version control system like Git. It can push and pull source code to github.