

MVC Design Pattern stands for Model View Controller Design Pattern.

MVC Design Pattern is used to create websites.

M stands for Model.

V stands for View.

C stands for Controller.

Models are the files that interact with databases.

Views are html pages or front end part which is shown in browsers.

Controller is the code that relates or attaches models with views.