Jira software is a software to manage projects like software projects or networking projects.

In jira we have two relevant things, issue and project

Project can be any project like software project or networking project.

Issue is a bug or task to do.

In jira we have boards related to a project

Through board we can manage issues

Through boards we can change status of issues.

There are three status of issues in jira which are To Do, In Progress and Done.